Web Developer Intern

Personal Profile

I am a french web developer graduate, looking to start my career in Denmark, to join my girlfriend. I discovered the country during an exchange semester and had a hard time deciding if I wanted to keep studying in Denmark. I want to start learning the language seriously once I arrive in Denmark and take classes. I don't have trouble joining new teams and look forward to do so again.

Interests

I'm playing the game "Magic The Gathering" competitively and have traveled all around Europe to attend competitions as well as the United States. It's been an amazing way to make friends and discover new countries.
I play badminton in a club as well and enjoy reading casually.
